NOW LET'S WRITE

My last holiday was the best holiday ever.

After a lot of discussions, I decided with my lovely family to visit Bali. Bali is a province of Indonesia.

It was a wonderful place where we enjoyed nature and felt peace and quiet. It was like a paradise.

For the first time, I discovered new culture and traditions. I tried new food and recipes, explored a new nation and melted with local people who were very kind and welcoming. My parents didn't regret going there and my little brother was extremely happy. I really wanted to go there again, and I advise anyone to visit Bali because they're going to love it.

Just remember to conjugate all the verbs in Simple Past.
